Director's Notes:

What an amazing adventure working with this small, but incredibly mighty group of talented young actors on Shakespeare's most famous play. With their curiosity, they have brought these 400 year old characters to life in a gorgeous and relevant way. Thank you parents, family and friends for supporting our cast during the process. And thank you to all of our tour audiences for sharing the magic of live theatre with us. "The play's the thing..."
